

The Magic of Erin Morgenstern

Friday, May 1

Guests may arrive at 5:00 p.m., lecture starts at 6:00 p.m. with signing to follow

Main Library-Humphreys Multimedia Room

Pull back the curtain. Dim the lights. Join us as we enter the world of magic and mystery by welcoming NYT Bestselling Author Erin Morgenstern to our very own stage. She will discuss The Night Circus, current projects, and the inspiration behind her writing. Additionally, there will be a brief Q & A session followed by a signing. This event is free and open to the public. The Hammes Bookstore will have books available for purchase.

Flax-Golden Tales Writing Workshop

Saturday, May 2 11:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Main Library--Humphreys Multimedia Room

In her weekly blog, Erin Morgenstern shared ten-sentence stories based on photographs by Carey Farrell called Flax-Golden Tales. In this writing workshop, the author will instruct participants on how to craft their own micro-stories inspired by photographs and postcards from SJCP's Local and Family History. You are also welcome to bring a picture of your own. Suitable for high school students and adults. Register online or call 282-4630.

The Night Circus* at The History Museum

Saturday, May 2 6:00 – 8:00 p.m.

The History Museum, 808 W. Washington, South Bend

"The circus arrives without warning." We cordially invite you to experience a taste of The Night Circus as we host a gathering for both rêveurs and the curious alike. Author Erin Morgenstern joins us for an evening of entertainment and hors d'oeuvres. Meet Madame Padva, marvel at the contortionist, consult with the fortune-teller and be swept away by the illusionist. Commemorate your visit to our Night Circus soirée with a special photo. Suggested attire is semi-formal or Night Circus-inspired ensembles. Tickets are $50.00 per person. Cash bar available. Call 282-4670 to reserve your tickets.

www.libraryforlife.org

Photo by Kelly Davidson.

